ANNOUNCEMENTS

REMAIL PRICE OF BEEAD A reduction in the price of bread is announced by advertisement by the Mohican Co. The reduced price brings the loaf of bread practically to the pre-war prices, which will be welcome news to housewives. At the new price announced the one-pound loaf that has been relling at 5 cents will be at 5 cents and the 1-2 pound loaf will be reduced in retail price from 12 cents to 5 cents.

Frank G. Aubrey, local manages of the Mohican So, store, said Thesday is connection with the price reduction that this is in line with the general peller of the company and that other price adjustments may be expected from time to time. Mr. Aubrey made the following statement:

"It is generally known that the Mohi-

Because of our vast chain of stores we are able to pur-chase in such quantities that we can from time to time adjust our prices to meet the needs of the community. There has been a reduction in the price of flour and, as flour is the chief component of bread, we decided to make this reduction and, as flour is the chief component of bread, we decided to make this reduction so that the public, a large percentage of which is at the present time unemployed, would reap the benefit now. There is nothing novel about this action; it is simply in keeping with the policy of our company and from time to time clair ad-justments of a like character will be made."

Davis Theatre

Can the soul of a dead girl come back to comfort those left desolate by her going?

It's a pretty thought that provides the theme for "All Souls" Eve." the Mary Miles Minter Realart preduction at the Davis theatre for tonight and tomorrow. The whole play is laid around a beautiful Irish legend that comes true to America. It is scoring locally the same tremendous muccess that was a feature of its las senson's run on Broadway. New Yerk Miss Minter plays a dual role.

Jack Holt plays the male lead, while Mickey Moore is most appealing in a child role. Other players include Clarence Geldart, Carmen Phillips and Lottle Williams.

production, "The Balt." will be the second feature attraction. Hope Hampien, the well known Trass screen lessury, plays the leading rale.

"The Balt" is described as a pleasing combination of romance, thrills, and mystery, with the usual colorful Teuriseus production met ods in evidence. The story centers around a pretty shep girl, who, singled out by a master-crope as who, singled out by a master-cr who, singled out by a master-crook as his pawn in a game to capture and later blackmail a young millionaire, a "framed" by the crook and then resoured by ed" by the crook and then resoured by him while on her way to jail. Out of cralifude she becomes an innocent prey to his schemes and learns the truth only when it seems to be too late. But after a thrilling experience, matters turn out happily.

Today and temerrow the Breed will present a double feature bill headed by Gladys Walton in "All Dolled Up," which w aswritten especially for Miss Walton and is well suited to her sparkling artistry. As the story opens abe it seen as a wee-begone little shop girl whose only romance is in her dreams. In contrast to her poverty is Eva Bundy, a wealthy spinster who has never indees wealthy spinster who has never known love. The two women find romance sinexpectedly. Magnie, the shop girl, falls in love with the spinster's chamflest when he saves her from the advances of a floor-walker. The spinster falls is love with Rodolphe, a singer, who want to share her money.

How the piot shifts to a notorious road house and how Maggie battles for her good name while the spinster decovers that the love which Bodelphe professed for her is a sham, brings the them to a cleverity conceived cilmax. Vor the second feature Ellem Beers will be seen in "The Husband Hunter." This is a sparkling comedy adapted from the Saturday Exening Post steps. "Myr Meets His Family" by F. Socia

The play was produced under the supervision of James E. Murphy and provides a full evening of delightful entertainment. Dancing will follow the pday. Tickets are on sale by members and at Ring & Sisk's drug store.

Strand Today

A new picture Anita Stewart in The More Excellent Way will be at the Strand for today only. This is a very good picture featuring the very well in the play mand Saturday, is said to be one of the finest examples of screen polograms ever presented to the public. It is classed that every character and set in this picture is authentic to the last degree. Even the extras have been chosen with the greatest of care.

One of the best points of the picture is the all star cast which features such players as Seena Orgon, Thilly Marthall, Jack Curtis, Melbourne MacDowell, Lon Chaney, Anna Hernander and many adventures of a sophisticated youth who falls in love with a poor girl. When he is about to marry her, his fasticious parents chiect and k is then the battle is about to marry ber, his fastigious parents chiect and K is then the battle of wits begins. He is even arrayed against a band of hired crooks, but his squareness and policy of fair-play win him his covered prize.
